I. PURPOSE

- A. The purpose of this directive is to set forth the policies and procedures of the East Haven Police Department (EHPD) regarding the training, use and administration of the police service dog (canine) unit(s).

II. POLICY

- A. It shall be the policy of the EHPD to operate Canine Unit(s) to support law enforcement operations.
- B. The animal(s) shall be cared for at the highest standards of humane treatment.
- C. The canine shall be used in scheduled civil disturbances only with the permission of the Chief of Police.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Bite and Hold: Canines shall be trained to bite and hold a suspect once located. The canine will be trained to remain on the bite until called off by the handler.
- B. Objectively Reasonable: The legal standard used to determine the lawfulness of a use of force is the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The U.S. Supreme Court established this standard in its ruling in Graham v. Connor (1989).
1. The Court held, "...that all claims that law enforcement officers have used excessive force – deadly or not – in the course of an arrest, investigatory stop, or other seizure of a free citizen should be analyzed under the Fourth Amendment and its objective reasonableness standard...The Fourth Amendment "reasonableness" inquiry is whether the officers' actions are 'objectively reasonable' in light of the facts and circumstances confronting them, without regard to their underlying intent or motivation. The 'reasonableness' of a particular use of force must be judged from the perspective of a reasonable officer on the scene, and its calculus must embody an allowance for the fact that police officers are often forced to make split-second decisions about the amount of force necessary in a particular situation."

2. The force must be reasonable under the circumstances known to the officer at the time the force was used.

IV. PROCEDURES

- A. Any deployment of canines for forcible apprehension must be objectively reasonable.
  1. Canines shall be trained to use the Bite and Hold tactic.
- B. Areas of potential deployment for a Canine Unit may include but are not limited to the following:
  1. Building Searches.
  2. Open Area Searches.
  3. Evidence Searches/Article Recovery.
  4. Tracking or Trailing.
  5. Narcotics/Controlled Substances Detection.
  6. Back-up for Violent/Potentially Violent Calls.
  7. Back-up for Dangerous Arrests.
  8. Pursuit/Apprehension at Vehicle and Foot Pursuits.
  9. Protection of Law Enforcement Personnel.
- C. Canine Unit
  1. A supervisor will be assigned as the Canine Unit supervisor and shall assume the responsibility of supervising and administering the day-to-day operations of the Canine Unit(s).
  2. The canine supervisor shall be responsible for the following:
    - a. General supervision of the Canine Unit.
    - b. Review and inspection, bi-annually, of all Canine Unit training records and deployment records.
    - c. Inspection of all issued canine equipment on a regular basis.

- d. Ordering of all food rations, canine specific equipment and medical care as needed.
  - e. Coordinating all community relations demonstrations.
  - f. Approval and coordination on requests for assistance by other departments for assistance from the East Haven Canine Unit.
  - g. Coordination and assignment of the Canine Unit in support of the South Central Regional SWAT.
  - h. Monthly report to the Head of the Patrol Division on the Canine Unit activity for the past month.
3. In the absence of the on-duty Canine Unit supervisor, and when not assigned to a specific detail, the Canine Unit shall operate under the supervision of the on-duty supervisor.
  4. The individual canine handler may authorize the use of his or her assigned canine for the apprehension of a suspect(s). It shall be the responsibility of each handler to ensure that practical safety precautions are taken at the time of deployment including a briefing to other law enforcement personnel, explaining the canine's abilities and limitations.
  5. In circumstances where the use of a Canine Unit is being considered, the final decision to deploy a canine shall rest with the individual canine handler, as only the handler truly knows the abilities and limitations of his or her canine and the animal's ability to safely and legally perform the task at hand.
  6. Once the canine handler has made the decision to deploy his or her patrol dog, the canine handler shall assume the responsibility for the control and operational management of the scene until a supervisor properly relieves him or her.
    - a. The perimeter and back up officers will redeploy to new positions according to directions from the canine handler during a canine deployment.

D. Building and Area Searches

1. Canines can be used effectively to search areas and buildings for hidden suspects that might be detected by scent or sound. Canines can also be utilized to search open areas for, suspects or evidence/articles that a suspect may have discarded.
2. When a suspect has fled the scene of a crime and a canine is en route, other officers should not pursue the suspect unless a reasonable chance of success exists.
3. If the pursuing personnel lose sight of the offender, the pursuit should be immediately terminated, a perimeter secured and held for the Canine Unit's arrival.

4. Personnel involved in the initial pursuit should note the last direction of travel, obstacles or hiding places, and other potential hazards so that they may brief the Canine Unit upon arrival.
  5. The on-scene supervisor should determine if the incident is significant enough to warrant a Canine Unit call-out or response. It shall be the responsibility of this individual to initiate the call-out/response in a timely manner and ensure that appropriate perimeter control is established and maintained.
  6. Prior to starting any search of a building by a Canine Unit, a series of verbal warnings and commands shall be made by the handler, if practical and safe to do so. The following warning shall be made:
    - a. "This is the East Haven Police Department Canine Unit. Anyone inside the building, announce yourself now and surrender or a police dog will be used to find you and may bite you."
      - 1) Three (3) such warnings shall be given and recorded through the handler's MVR microphone, police radio or body camera.
  7. This warning may be modified to suit the situation by the handler and only, serves as a sample of an appropriate warning. The handler may choose to have this or other warnings issued via public address systems or by other officers as necessary or practical.
  8. If, after a reasonable amount of time passes and no response is heard or no person(s) surrender themselves, the handler may release the canine into the building to begin the search, the handler may choose to conduct the search on-lead or off, as appropriate to the situation.
  9. Prior to starting any search of a building or open area, the handler will determine if additional personnel are to enter the area with the Canine Unit.
    - a. The handler shall brief the personnel in the procedures of canine searches and apprehension.
    - b. The primary duty of personnel supporting the Canine Unit in a search shall be the protection of handler and to take custody of any person located by the canine, at the direction of the handler.
- E. Tracking/Trailing of Criminal Suspects and Lost Persons
1. Ground scent tracking and wind scent trailing can be useful for following fleeing suspects or lost individuals when the presence of other persons, vehicles or extreme weather conditions do not impair the scent.
  2. Personnel requesting the assistance of the Canine Unit to assist in this type of search should secure an appropriate perimeter to avoid contamination of the scent trail.
  3. Canines shall not be used to approach mentally disturbed persons or persons under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

F. Crowd Control and Civil Disturbances

1. In the case of civil disturbances the Canine Unit will not be deployed unless authorized by the Chief of Police or his/her designee.
2. When practical, while deploying the canine in a large crowd control situation, the handler should wear appropriate tactical/safety equipment to include but not be limited to a tactical vest, Kevlar helmet and gloves.

G. Pursuit and Apprehension

1. Pursuit and apprehension of fleeing suspects makes use of the canine's speed and maneuverability to affect a capture without the use of deadly force.
2. Canine pursuits and apprehensions shall be conducted at the handler's discretion.
3. Assisting personnel shall allow the Canine Unit primary access to the area and path of flight, prior to conducting any search if practical.

H. Tactical/S.W.A.T Deployments

1. The use of the Canine Unit to support tactical operation and SWAT operations must be reviewed and approved by the Canine Unit supervisor.
2. Canine Unit personnel shall be consulted prior to deployment as to the appropriateness of using the canine and the best method of using the Canine Unit.
3. All Canine Unit personnel involved in SWAT deployments shall wear all issued tactical equipment for the duration of the deployment.

I. Narcotics Detection

1. The EHPD canine may be trained to detect the following narcotics:
  - a. Cocaine HCL and Cocaine Base (Powdered and "Crack" Cocaine).
  - b. Hashish.
  - c. Heroin.
  - d. Marijuana.
  - e. Methamphetamine.
  - f. Other controlled substance containing derivatives of the above.
2. Narcotics detector canines may be deployed in the following situations:
  - a. Searches during vehicle stops.
  - b. To build probable cause for search warrants.
  - c. Drug interdiction in public areas.

- d. Searches relative to search warrant executions.
  - e. Community relations demonstrations.
  - f. Assistance of other law enforcement agencies in any of the above.
- J. If an apprehension involves a dog bite the following procedure shall be followed:
- 1. The injured person shall be afforded medical care as soon as possible.
  - 2. The on-duty supervisor and the Canine Unit supervisor shall be notified.
  - 3. A copy of the report documenting the bite shall be completed by the handler by and forwarded to the canine supervisor. Copies of the report shall be forwarded to the Head of the Patrol Division.
  - 4. A use of force report shall be completed in accordance with the Department's Use of Force policies and procedures.
  - 5. The canine involved in the bite shall be taken to the contract veterinarian for an examination within ten (10) days of the bite. A copy of the medical certificate clearing the dog shall be forwarded to the Department and the original shall be placed in the dog's medical file.
  - 6. Photographs shall be taken of the bite by a Department field investigator.
    - a. All photographs shall be taken following cleaning of the wound area so that the photographs accurately reflect the extent of injury in a non-prejudicial manner. Photographs shall be logged into evidence or uploaded into the case file in the Department's computer system.
- K. Training.
- 1. All Canine Unit personnel shall be required to certify his or her canine before it is authorized to be deployed for active duty.
  - 2. The canine trainer and canine supervisor can limit the scope under which a canine will be deployed.
  - 3. All Canine Unit personnel shall attend maintenance training with their assigned canine in accordance with programs designed by the canine's training school.
  - 4. All canine handlers shall maintain training files on their canines using preapproved training forms. These files shall be submitted to the Administrative and Training Supervisor for inclusion in the officer's canine's permanent file and for audit and review purposes.
  - 5. Monthly canine activity reports shall be submitted to the Head of the Patrol Division by the canine supervisor.

6. Canine Unit training reports, field deployment and narcotics reports will not be removed from the permanent files. These records are the property of the Department and not the individual officer.

L. Officer handlers.

1. Any certified officer meeting or exceeding the posted requirement may apply for a position vacancy in the Canine Unit.
2. The handlers assigned to the Canine Unit shall obtain dog food and other contracted supplies from the Department designated vendor only.
3. The handler is responsible for ensuring that their canine is maintained in a healthy environment. This includes proper feeding and routine physical inspections.
4. The handler is responsible for ensuring that his or her canine receives prompt medical care from either the contract veterinarian or contract emergency veterinarian services. The handler is responsible for filing all medical records and receipts in their canine's medical records file.
5. The handler will ensure that no unauthorized people tease or otherwise harass their canine or other Department canines, unless specifically directed to do so in a training environment.
6. The handler will ensure than nobody pets or attempts to pet a Department canine without the specific permission of the canine's handler.
7. Unauthorized exhibitions of the canine's apprehension and engagement abilities are forbidden.
8. Handlers will ensure that law enforcement personnel working in the immediate proximity of the police service canine shall heed all directions given by the handler and that their actions will not compromise the safety of the handler or the deployment mission. The handler may stop and cancel the deployment at anytime if they notice a significant safety or tactical violation. These cancellations and the causes shall be immediately reported to the Canine Unit supervisor.

M. Each canine handler will be issued the following equipment and will be responsible for the care and maintenance of this equipment. All canine equipment shall be returned when the handler leaves the service of the Canine Unit.

1. Traffic Lead (leather).
